E... Excuse me...
Did my Takashi... do something?

There's something I want you to confirm

KYAAA
Takashi!
Wake up,
Takashi!!
Lie!
It must be a lie!

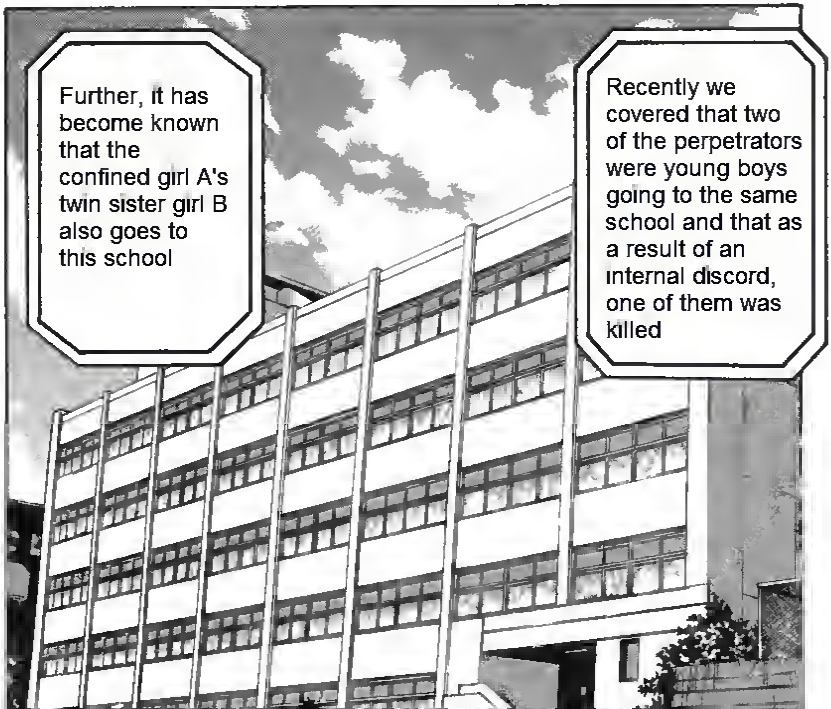
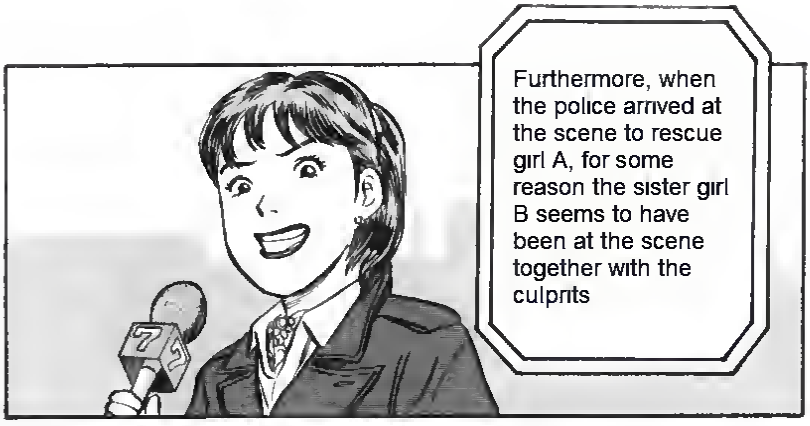
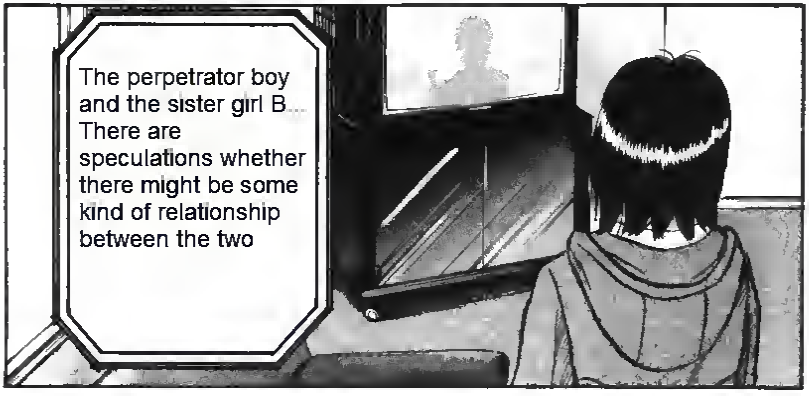
There is new information on the case of the confined high school girl, which has been covered consecutively
a few days later
数日後



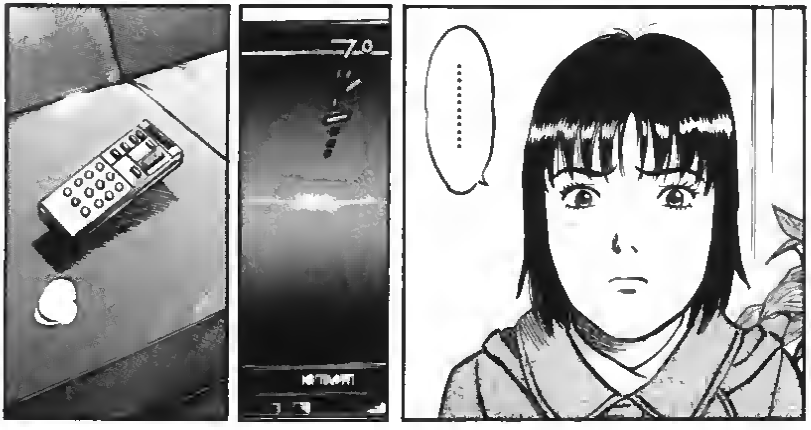
Further, it has become known that the confined girl A's twin sister girl B also goes to this school
Recently we covered that two of the perpetrators were young boys going to the same school and that as a result of an internal discord, one of them was killed



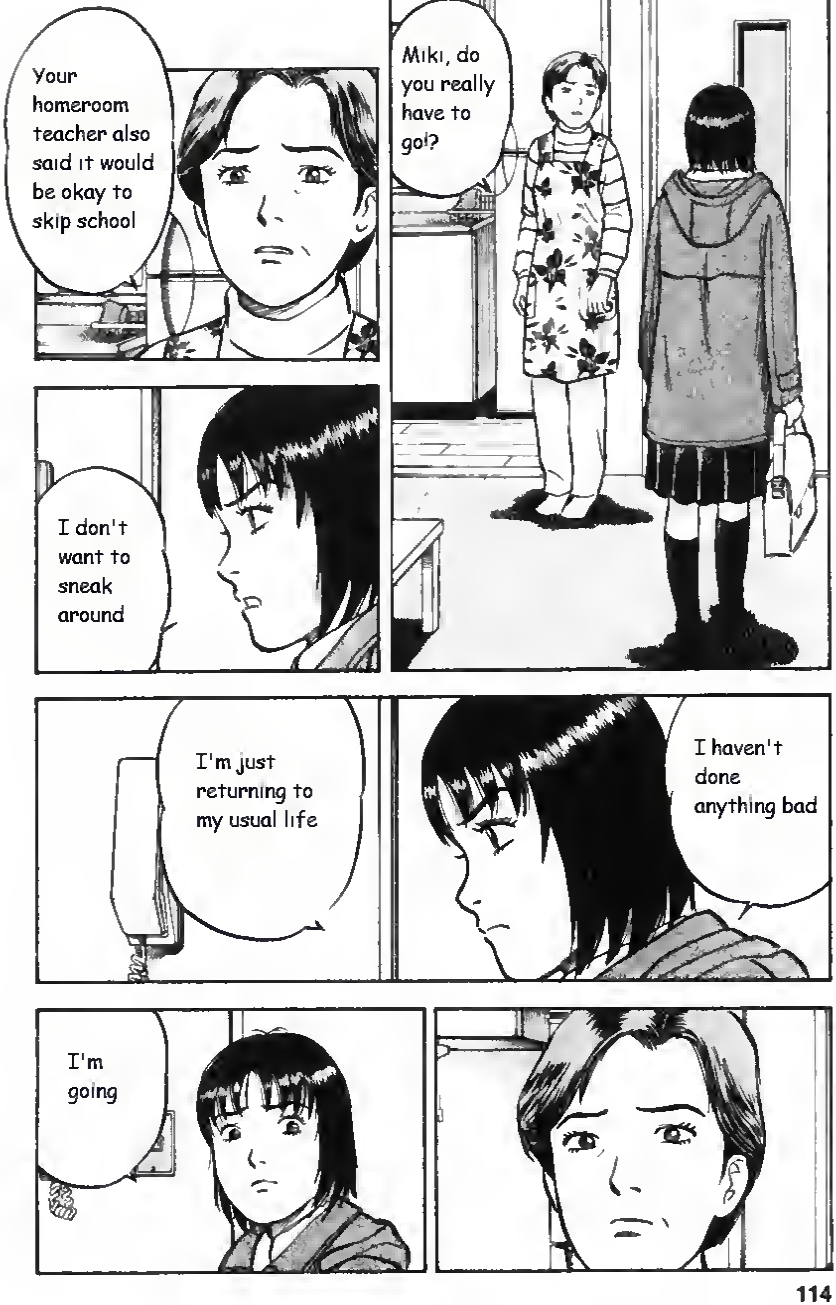
Furthermore, when the police arrived at the scene to rescue girl A, for some reason the sister girl B seems to have been at the scene together with the culprits



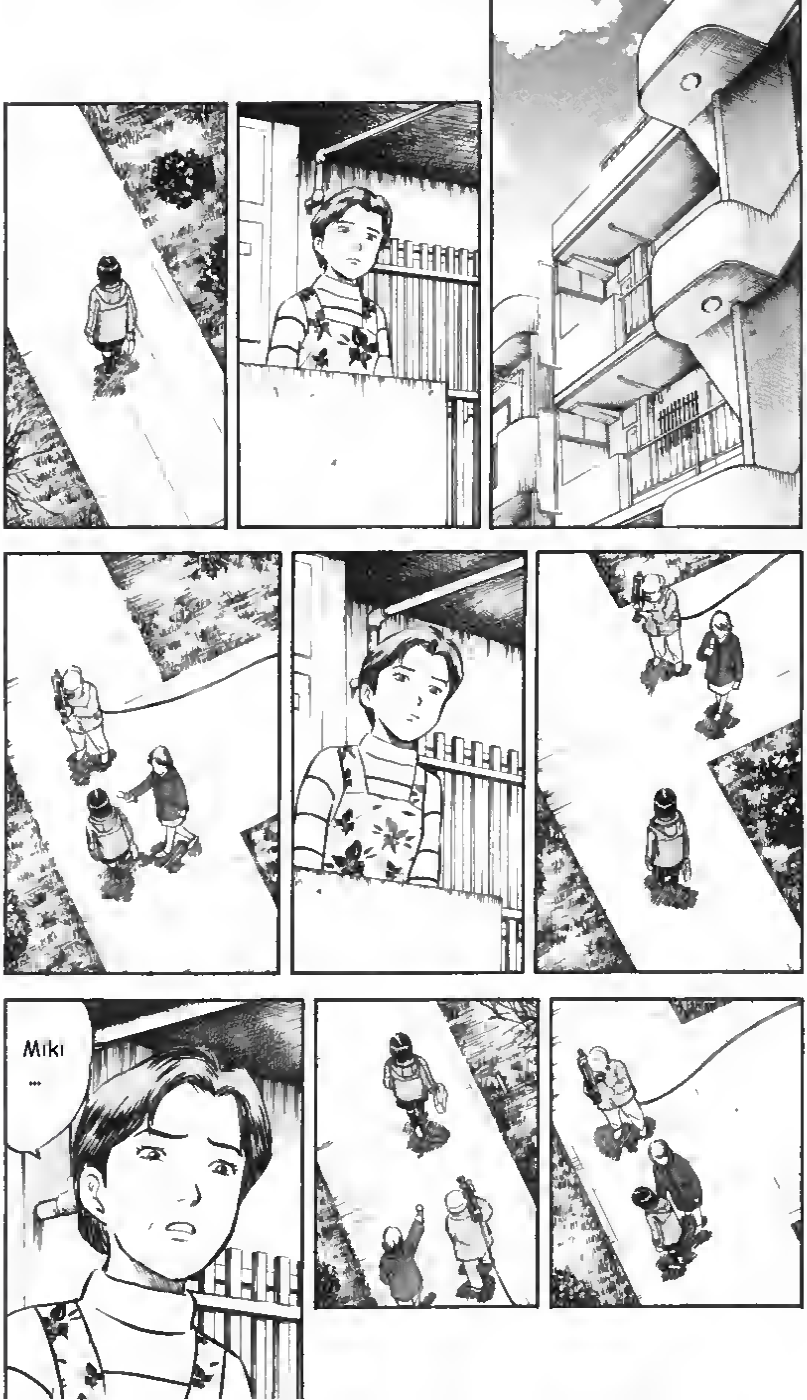
The perpetrator boy and the sister girl B... There are speculations whether there might be some kind of relationship between the two



.....



Your homeroom teacher also said it would be okay to skip school
Miki, do you really have to go?
I don't want to sneak around
I'm just returning to my usual life
I haven't done anything bad
I'm going



Miki

I can't believe it
She came to school

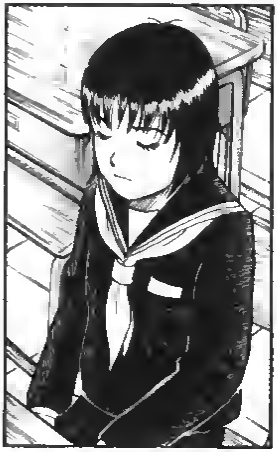
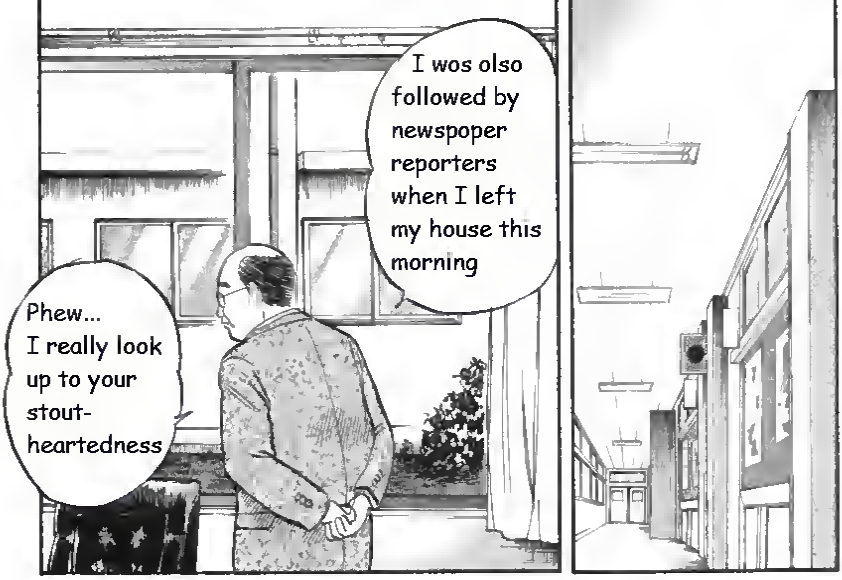
ガヤガヤ

yes

Is Osawa-san there?



one moment ...



I wos olso followed by newspoper reporters when I left my house this morning
Phew... I really look up to your stout-heartedness

It has become the perfect prey for the press
In this school, there's both a perpetrator and the victim's sister

The rest of the students ore quite agitoted
One person turned up dead
...only, Osawa-san

I think that the students will not only be shaken from the outside but also from the inside
Because you attend school... could you commensurate your school attendance for the time being?
I'm sorry but
.....

Information on the perpetrators
What did you want to ask...?

I'm not allowed to say anything about them, even not to the victim
I can't tell you that... They are juveniles, that's why their privacy is protected by the Juvenile Law

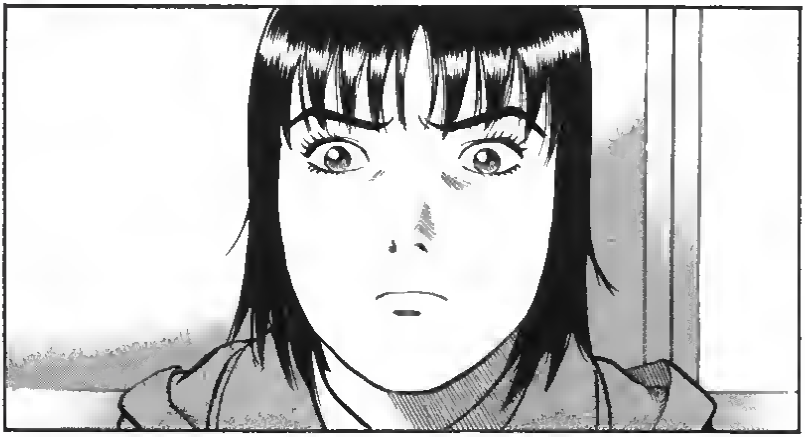
Something like that, isn't that wrong?
Oh so interesting things about us have been on TV and in weekly magazines continuously
Why is that!?

For my sister's case, is it the end when the culprits are arrested?
I understand your feelings... but the law is like that..

Think of it as me tolking to myself ond listen
ok ...
It is referred in reverse They were returned from the family court back to the prosecution and will undergo a public trial like adults. *
yes
triols !?
Soon the triols for the perpetrotor boys will begin
why ...
But... I can't really recommend it...
Anyone can attend
Can we also watch?
Public?

*TLN The court terms are very liberal translations as I am in no way familiar with proper Japanese or English law terms (and my dictionary didn't help) Please excuse the lack of accuracy there

Furthermore, you will hear everything that happened to your sister at that place
The perpetrators will be right in front of your eyes



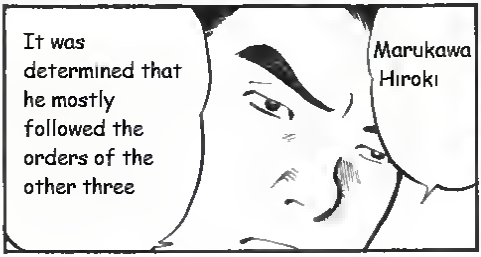
Why this incident occured And...
I want to know no matter what

But... That doesn't matter
... but

was able to help my sister.....
Why nobody

That, I want to ask Marukawa Hiroki no matter what
He wanted to tell me something
But... Why he didn't do so...
Or couldn't do so...

Even if a case like that occurs again, we won't be able to prevent it!
As long as we don't know that



It was determined that he mostly followed the orders of the other three Marukawa Hiroki

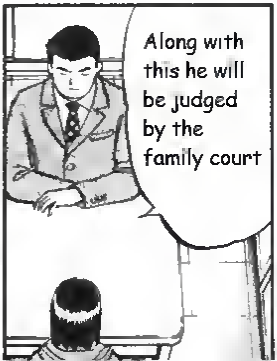
The ones who are allowed to attend a trial in the family court are only the lawyer and people from the perpetrator's side



Along with this he will be judged by the family court

You can't attend Marukawa Hiroki's trial
And therefore
